if a group of people can build this or a platform for hanging - even if it not used, the message will be loud and clear and the images of it alone will be legendary

I'm sure it will require a patriot shield wall to protect the group from being attacked. long posts with sharpened tips would still be a valid defense even in 2021.

If they want to bring us to old English rule then by God we might as well dress the part.

That's a symbol beloved by commies. I recommend a gallows.

French revolution used it. Commies used pistols.
